If you were to ask anyone from our parent's generation where they were on November 22, 1963, the date of John F. Kennedy's assassination, or April 4, 1968, the date of Martin Luther King, Jr.'s assassination, they would remember clearly. It changed their lives forever, even in ways that they could not then foresee.

September 11, 2001, the day that terrorists brought down the World Trade Center, was the day that will forever affect our lives. It will be many years before we will truly understand how our lives have changed. If you were to ask one of us in 30 years, where we were and what we were doing on September 11, 2001, we will remember clearly.

Our country has come together in a time of grief to comfort one another and to offer hope to strangers. Everyone lost something on September 11. Let tomorrow will be a brighter day.

In memory and honor of those who died, we live with hope in our hearts.

Walk Away - Ben Harper

Oh no/Here comes that sun again/ That means another day/Without you my friend.

And it hurts me/ To look into the mirror at myself/ And it hurts me even more/ To have to be with somebody else.

And it's so hard to do/ And so easy to say/ But sometimes/ Sometimes you just have to/ Walk away/ Walk away.

But you put the happy/ In my mess/ you put the good times/ Into my fun.
And it's so hard to do/ And so easy to say/ But sometimes/ Sometimes you just have to/ Walk away/ Walk away/ And head for the door.

We've tried the goodbye/ So many days/ We walk in the same direction/ So that we could never stray/ They say if you love somebody/ Then you have got to set them free/ But I would rather be locked to you/ Than live in this pain and misery.

They say time will/ Make all this go away/ But it's time that has taken my tomorrows/ And turned them into yesterdays/ And once again that rising sun/ Is droppin' on down/ And once again you my friend/ Are nowhere to be found.

And its so hard to do/ And so easy to say/ But sometimes/ Sometimes you just have to / Walk away/ Walk away/ And head for the door/ You just walk away/ Walk away.

-Doran's favorite song

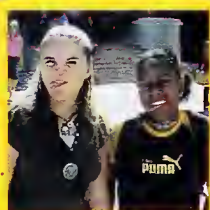

To a wonderful friend, boyfriend and brother, we love you, we miss you and we will never forget what you have given us.
WORD.

After three long years of the daily grind at BHS, Jamie and Jesse were on their way to the Annual Berkeley High School Jacket Awards. In the limo on the way to the show they were busy reminiscing over the last three years: getting egged as freshmen, the B building burning down, and transitioning to new principals.

When they finally arrive at the show, an escort opens the door and out step Jesse in his tux and Jamie in her designer dress. As they step out of the limo the underclassmen surround them in awe. Jamie and Jesse mingle with the rest of the SENIORS and make small talk while they wait for the show to start. An usher hands them their programs and escorts them to their VIP / Reserved / SENIOR Special Guest / seats. Finally they get a chance to sit and look at the program, when they realize that the lights are dimming for the beginning of the show.

After the awards show they will head to the Greek where a teary eyed graduation ceremony will take place.

Joanna Hoch

If you can't find her in the weight room at the YMCA, or in the classroom maintaining her 3.7 GPA, SENIOR Joanna Hoch can most likely be found on the playing field. From a very young age, Joanna has exhibited great skill and commitment to a multitude of sports. During her four years at BHS she has played lacrosse and field hockey. During her junior year she was selected 2nd All League Lacrosse Team and was an Academic All American. Joanna was also the CO-MVP, and was selected to the "Futures" programs, and Olympic development and feeding program, during her SENIOR year for field hockey. Joanna has not only excelled on existing teams, but started her own when they did not exist. Her sophomore year Joanna started the Women's Rugby Club and is currently the Co-Captain and administrator. Her talents do go beyond the playing field. She is the President of Best Buddies, a club designed to enhance the lives of people with developmental disabilities through friendship. She is truly what colleges are looking for when they say, "be well rounded." Joanna should have no trouble getting into a college of her choice, including University of Massachusetts, University of Texas at Austin, or UC Santa Barbara. She is considering combining her love of sports and biology into one by majoring in sports medicine.

Lee
Franklin

Anthony Lee Franklin is best known for his athletic achievement. He plays football, basketball and baseball for BHS. In 1997, Lee was diagnosed with leukemia. For three years, ending in May 2000, Lee endured drug treatment and radiation. His cancer is now in remission, and through it all, he flourished in athletics and in the classroom. In his junior year, he was an All-Alameda Contra Costa Athletic League performer in football and baseball, while maintaining a 3.7 GPA.

He stands as a role model to others by continuing to play sports and keeping his grades up. He is also devoted to inform other African Americans to become bone marrow donors.

Next fall Lee is planning to attend USC, George Washington, or Howard. He is thinking about playing baseball for either of the colleges.

Ian Richards

Ian started 2001 by winning the Northern California Downhill Series in the Jr. Expert mountain biking category (18 and under). Then he separated his shoulder in mid-March which took him off of his bike for nine weeks. The first race after his injury was the National Series opener in Big Bear Lake, CA where he finished third. Two days after school was out Ian flew to Colorado to meet up with his team to go to the Snowshoe, West Virginia Nationals where he also finished third. The following race was in Park City, Utah, where while practicing he crashed and received a mild concussion. At the Mammoth, CA Nationals Ian received fifth place. His finishes over the course of the season were enough to get him selected to compete on the Jr. National team, he was the fourth pick out of seven for the team. On this team, Ian competed in Vail, CO against the top 55 Jr. riders in the world where he came in 28th place. Racing and turning professional are his top priorities next year; however he does plan to take two or three classes a year at a community college so that he won't become completely out of touch with school. Ian quotes "My feeling is that you can be a 30 year old college student, but not a 30 year old top level pro, and I can't lose four years of prime training years and expect to just come back and do well. Now is the time to pursue this career."

Lamile Perry

By the fifth grade, Lamile Perry had undergone so many surgeries that his doctors decided to put Lamile in a wheelchair. Up until then he was never really into sports. In losing the use of his legs he found a passion for sports and a calling for competition. Since then he has joined U.S. teams in both wheelchair basketball and track. He has competed in many international games including in Australia. He will be going to South Africa to compete in the future.

Lamile has received many awards for track and basketball. In track he has received awards in 100m, 200m, 400m, 800m, 1500m, and relays. In basketball he has received awards for best sportmanship, and championship in 1995, which he will be trying for again this year.

Lamile gives lots of thanks to his mother for her moral support as well as his twin brother, Emile. He plans to attend a black college in the fall, however his top choice is The University of Texas where he plans to major in the medical field and childhood education.

Chinaka Hodge

Since the fall of her freshman year, Chinaka has been an active participant in Youth Speaks, a nonprofit literary arts organization for teenagers.

During her work with Youth Speaks, she has competed in Slams, hosted open microphones and organized Brave New Voices 2000, a national youth poetry festival. She is currently the Youth Board coordinator and an After-school Workshop mentor.

Not only is Chinaka involved in Youth Speaks, but she's also in Sisters of Tomorrow (SOT), a rite of passage program for African American girls. Besides writing, Chinaka is interested in dance. She has been a dancer in the Bay Area W. African Dance community for as long as she can remember. In addition to being a student in BHS' Afro-Haitian Dance class, she also performs around the Bay Area with her father and brothers.

Even with her involvement in many extra curricular activities and her responsibilities as the oldest of seven children; which keeps her busy, she manages to maintain a 3.6 GPA. After completing undergraduate studies, she hopes to work for a literary arts organization. She also wants to be a full time English teacher and maybe start her own independent school with a focus on performing arts education for students of varying incomes.

Emily Freidman

UC Berkeley, University of Wisconsin, or Princeton. This was the dilemma that SENIOR Emily Friedman was faced with this fall. Heavily recruited by all three schools, she had a difficult decision to make. In November 2001 she finally made her decision and signed a letter of intent with the University of Wisconsin at Madison. They offered her a full scholarship to play for their Division 1, NCAA Tournament softball team. At Wisconsin she plans to study biology and anatomy while working on her pre-med requirements. Among other things, she has been a member of the Varsity Volleyball team since freshman year, including this years NCS Champion squad. Emily has also played club volleyball with the Golden Bear Volleyball Club for three years. While not on the softball field or on the volleyball court she can be found doing ceramics or lifting weights at the YMCA.

NOTICE TO ALL FRESHMEN:

We are sorry to inform you that we are clean out of pictures of you. There are a few reasons for this that are beyond the direct control of the Yearbook.

1) With freshmen sightings decreasing in frequency it is almost impossible to capture a live one of you on film!

2) Think about it, from an upperclassmens perspective, would you want to spend your lunchtime taking pictures of freshmen????

The Berkeley Yellow Jackets bit and stung their way to a winning season. The football team started the league play winless, the demanding preseason schedule prepared them well for league. In league play they were undefeated until they played Pinole for the league title in the last game of the year. The season ended for the jackets in a closely match battle against their league rivals. Our fighting boys were barely defeated, but still came away with their heads held high knowing they made Berkeley proud. Even though the football team did not make the playoffs, it was the Berkeley team to have a winning record in the last few years. The Berkeley offensive machine was driven both through the air and the ground. They brutalized teams with their punishing running game, and hit them quick and hard through their aerial assault. The defense was equally devastating, posting back to back shutouts. Their suffocating style enabled them to be in the league leaders in the most major categories.

Honorable Mentions

FOOTBALL

There were many bright points to the football season. Jackets received more all league honors than they had for many years. 1st team all league honors went out to: Germey Baird, Owen Goldstrom, Brian Hickman, Leonard Scarbrough, Myron Seals, Matthew Toma, and Sean Young. The 2nd Teamers were Zachary Cohen, Raymond Pinkston, and Nicholas Schooler. Rounding out all league honors were: Lee Franklin, Robert Hunter-Ford, and Gregory Mitchell as honorable mentions. Other celebrated team members were: Mejia, Mason, Goodwin, Jacobs, Harris, Thepsoukmalay, Philogene, and Foster. The future looks bright for this football program. They will be returning twenty underclassmen with varsity experience. Couple that with a very successful junior varsity team, these Yellow Jackets next year will be looking to some damage in the post season.

Field Hockey

Varsity (in alphabetical order):

Miriam Bellows, Sylvie Boland, Rachel Brick, Meredith Gaber, Brianna Georgi, Jade Giotta, Leila Hall, Joanna Hoch, Bailey Holloway, Erin Meggyesy, Aura Navichoque, Alexandra Pauley, Lauren Ross, Madeline Rudd, Veronica Searles, Kate Walstead, Emily Zubritsky

Field Hockey has always been an underrated sport at BHS. Although in the past the team has been known more for having fun on the field than for scoring goals, that image began to change this year.

Field Hockey started this season like it does every year—trying to teach newcomers “stick skills” is a lengthy process, and so is learning to trust and work with your new teammates. It was over the first few weeks that we had some bonding and trusting difficulty, but we began talking about our issues, and about how to be who we wanted to be.

Suddenly, one afternoon at practice, everything clicked. We were playing awesome and we all felt it. We just had to take this to our games . . . and we did. Both our awesome JV and varsity teams acted like a family, putting all their strength into the game.

Next year we hope the new connection of talent and love moves us upward. But regardless of how hard we worked we knew the true reason that we started to play Field Hockey not because we're the best, but because we LOVE IT.

Both varsity and JV overcame the issue of looking up before passing. Our offense finally became stronger and more confident. Finally our courage shone through and we won a game—and were beginning to score goals more often. With 2 coaches and 3 assistant coaches, including all excellent SENIORS, our team was full of inspiration.

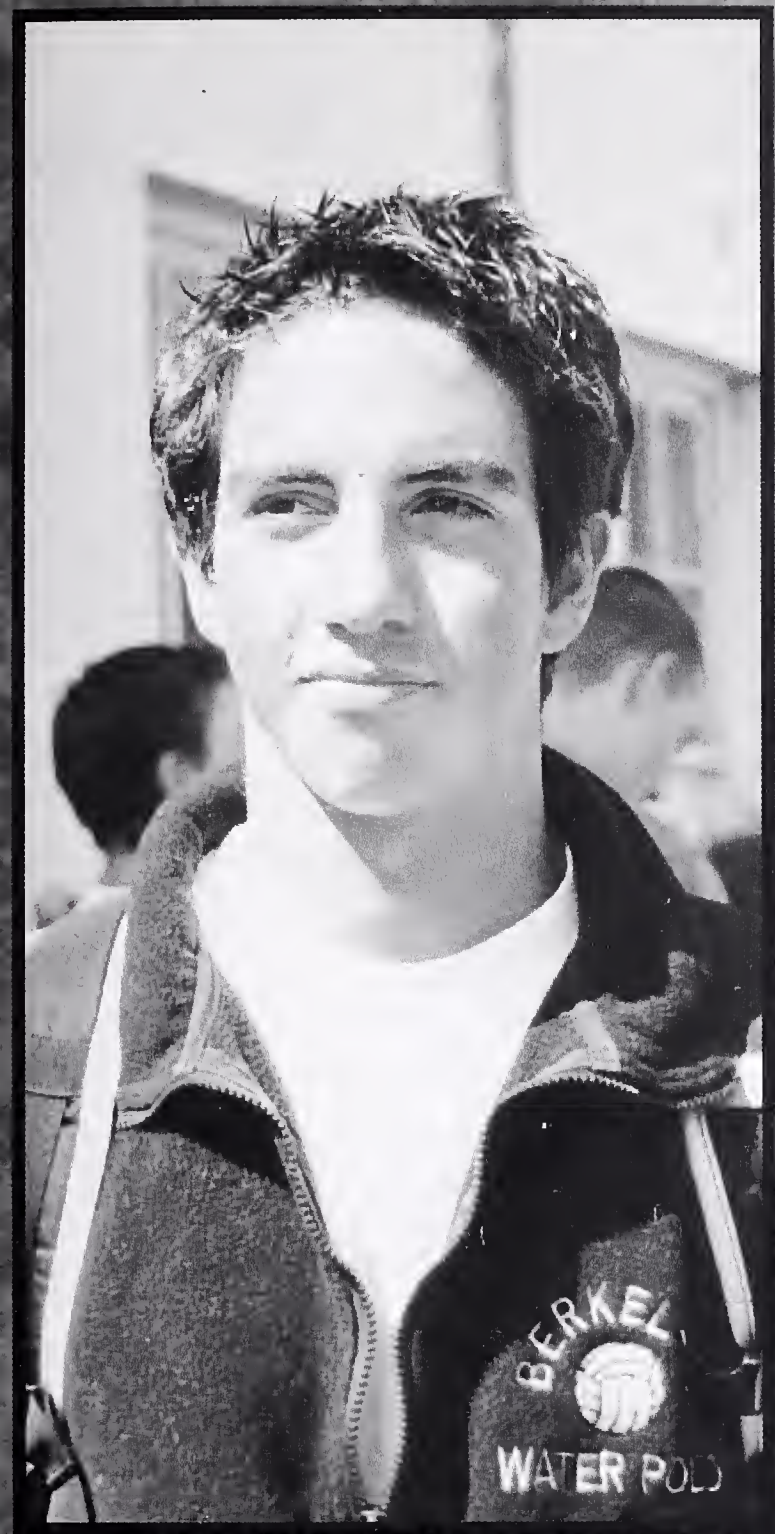

Junior Varsity (with Varsity) in alphabetical order:
Katherine Alden, Anna-Nora Bernstein, Molly Gaebler, Kelsey Gustafson, Virginia Hallam, Emily Harry, Elizabeth Helliesen, Zoe Hoberman-Kelly, Baily Hopkins, Valerie Morris, Lynn O'Shaughnessy, Xochi Padilla, Shariffa Payne, Lani Powell, Liza Ruzer, Amber St. John, Samona Turner, Maria Wahlstron, Julie Walrand, Margaret Waltner, Elena Wright

MEN'S WATER POLO

Men's Water Polo had a great season. The varsity team was lead by a strong core of starters, and helped by the many underclassmen who stepped up this year to round out the team. For the first time, we beat our worthy rival, Piedmont High, twice. We worked hard, played hard, and learned a great deal from Coach Brandon's endless lectures about super heroes. The seniors will miss you all.

Varsity:

Charles Benton, Dominic Cathey, Nicholas Easterday, Dante Giorgetti, Scott Jackson, Peter Letz, Christoper May, David Schooley, Andrew Turner

Junior Varsity:

Ian Dimen, Thomas Ferrell, Patrick Haesloop, Samuel Hammer-Nahman, Ariel Nikzad, Ian Rose, Or Shuval, Delano Willis, Elliot Wong

Women's water polo had a great season. The varsity team was lead by a strong core of starters, helped by the many underclassmen who stepped up this year to round out team. For the first time, we beat our worthy rival, Piedmont High, twice. We worked hard, played hard and learned to deal with Coach Brandon's endless lectures about super heroes. The seniors will miss you all. Good luck next year!

The women's Tennis team began the season restless for new players. With only two die-hard four year players, Carly "Did you hear..." Klienman and Monique "Cood game but I didn't agree with any of your calls" Le were joined by many others to put up tough competition in the ACCAL. Other returning seniors included hard-hitting Violet "Hat-trick" Lehrer, cool-serving Adi "It's not coming off" Nevo, blue-skirt-wearing Sophia "Di-Sexy" Chytry, and footwork-lovin' Zoe "Cement" Schmitz. This was just the beginning of all the dedicated players that blessed the courts. Other returning players included powerhouse Megan "Cheep shot" Sweeney, Talia "Dr. Appointment" ?????, and Anna "Maestro" Leff-Kitch. Returning after dormant for two years, Justine "Rad Plad" Osborne laced up her shoes and amazed the opposition with her consistent shots. Senior Lily "El Duche" Schneider also decided to pick up a racket, trading her spandex shorts for a short red skirt. She and her partner Gail "High-Fiver" Nipretnoriset continually beat their opponents in minutes. Other new players consisted of Tova "Hyper-Thyroid" Osborne, Rachel "Stop, drop, and roll" Liebman, and superstar freshman Alison "Balla" Headly. But the true superstar of the team was none but Coach Dan "Do you want to be head coach?" Seguin himself, who dazzeled the team with his post-practice play, good looks and great bread. The girls also managed to play outstandingly well, landing them the second place spot in the ACCAL.

Did that hurt?

Zoe exclaims.

The Berkeley High School Cross-Country Team had a great season. The team began the season eager to play, but was devastated by the lack of a coach. Determined to play, fifteen students started practicing without a mentor. Dave Goodrich, seeing the team members dedication to the sport, volunteered to become their new mentor. A track and Cross-Country coach for over nine years at San Leandro High School, he became the new BHS Cross Country coach.

When asked what motivated him to step up and volunteer to take the job. Goodrich said, "determination like that always deserves to be rewarded."

The BHS Cross Country competitors Alex Weismann, Alex Quilter, Alex Bare and Tony Williams finished third, second, fifth, and first place respectively at the Pt. Pinole League Championships.

The Cross Country League is made up of all the teams in the Bay Area coming together to compete against one another to win a spot in the top seven places. The Berkeley team, mostly made up of sophmores and juniors had a great season - almost beating Alameda, which has never been done before.

Cross Country runner Kris Houston helps another runner finish the grueling Castro Valley course.

BHS Freshmen and Sophmore runners sweep 1,2,3, and 25th places at League Championships.

Men's Soccer

The men's varsity soccer team had a great season this year. Every player put in their best effort and for the first time in five years the varsity team made it to the playoffs and won the ACCAL. In the preseason, the team lost to Washington and Castro Valley but came back strong in the post season and won back their dignity. Strikers Kamani Hill, Giovanni Garcia-Perez, and Chris Dove led a high powered offense and red curtain defense. Thanks to Most Desirable 2002, William Vega many fans were always there to cheer on the team at games. With support from the team captains and the direction from Coach Eugenio Juarez, they all dribbled their way to success.

Women's Basketball

The Varsity Women's Basketball team had an awesome season once again. This years team was filled with talent and always lived up to their expectations with the help of one man—Coach Gene Nakamura. He has inspired the players to do their best and to focus on team-work. The Varsity Yellow Jackets have gained respect for the teams to come, supporting the younger players as they claim their spots on next year's team. Let us not forget the Seniors who are leaving us this year: Myette Anderson, Natasha Bailey, Sabrina Keys, Lauren Chambers, Angelita Hutton, Rebekah Payne, & Kalyca Seabrook. They will be greatly missed!

Hmm... Looks Like He Got It Under Control

2001-2002 was a good year for Berkeley High's wrestling team. They started with a big team and ended up sending four wrestlers to the North Coast Sectionals: Junior Nicolas Cary, Sophomore Carlo Conejo (his second time), Freshmen Daniel Burrley and Mathison Ott. Captain Kris Austen has done a great job with the team. Although the wrestling season is over, next year's team looks to be in good shape. Good Luck Ya'll!

Men's Golf

Last year, the Berkeley High men's golf team missed going undefeated by one stroke. They were co-ACCAL champions and easily won the automatic entry to the North Coast Sectionals by securing the league championship. Using the amazing talents of many returning members, Coach Evan "Nik" Dang's team started this year undefeated in league at 3-0, undefeated overall at 6-0 and with an expectation to win the league again and compete in North Coast Sectionals. The team will also compete in several other tournaments, continuing the impressive play started last year.

Varsity golfers: Adam Breckler, Sean-Paul Casella, Kiel

This fall, the women's golf team won their league and maintained a perfect 7-0 record. In each of three league tournaments, Berkeley High had a different low scorer or medalist. Most Improved Player Cydnee "Inches" Bayless won the first, Most Valuable Player Cameron Wilson won the second, and Michelle "Killa" Yin won the third. Each of these medalists also recieved All-League honors for their outstanding play. "You reflect and you think, 'look at what we were able to do,'" said Bayless.

Even though the Jackets were undefeated, the competition was not very challenging. "We thought we were beginners, but when we saw the other teams..." said one anonymous player. The Jackets made the playoffs, but elected not to go because the site was too far away and "we wanted to stay undefeated and end on a high note," according to Coach Matt Bremer

Other team members include seniors Adrianna "Tree" Ibrahim and Scholar Athlete Courtney "Co-Co" Yin. Women's Golf has high hopes for next season with All-League players Michelle Yin and Cydnee Bayless returning next year.

Caitlin makes a kick-ass catch at first base.

The infielders towered above all others

Despite having to overcome numerous obstacles (such as having to run more than the track team; needing police protection from overly exuberant fans; having to avoid sliding into canine excrement in the outfield (Zoe); being forced to climb over a nine foot fence to get onto the field everyday for practice; and having to evacuate buses that spontaneously combust on the freeway), the softball team has prevailed in it's goal of ACCAL DOMINATION!

Led by our excellent and knowledgeable Coach Lisa "Drop your gloves and meet me in left field" Iancin the team sailed to new heights of athletic glory. The kick-ass battery, comprised of Pitchers Joe "Samurai Warrior / A's" Warner (Captain) and Sarah "Urkel / Whoa there Tiger!!" Corrigan-Gibbs and Catchers Sarah "I'm NOT Katy" Fong and Violet "V-Dogg / Ugly" Lehrer (Captain) left batters befuddled and base runners terrified. The middle infielders, Courtney "the Alabama Penguin" Slinkard, Amel "Don't make me kick your ass" Gana, and Bailey "Boom-Chic-Boom" Holloway, left nothing to be desired as they dominated defensively. The corners Caitlin "Where's my mouth gaurd?" Drulis and Amanda "Circus Act" Wake left the opposing teams and onlookers in awe. Our wonderful outfield and last line of defense: Joanna "Wait . . . where's the bus / I got the fire" Letz, Zoe "Choose your destiny" Hitchner, Sasha "I can't reach my elbow!" Harris-Lovett and Alani "Old French man / Doctor Mom" Kelly was like a brick wall, stopping all balls that came to them.

The depth and comradarie on the team made it a winning season both on and off the field. GO JACKETS!!!

NEW AWESOME ATTITUDE FOR MEN'S VOLLEYBALL (it's awesome)

That's right, when the team isn't out getting into bare fisted boxing matches, rollin' on dubs, buying platinum football fields, getting gold ones, c-walking, or pumping iron in the hood, they're busy dominating the ACCAL. Robin Roach and Joel Li led this years team which was extra awesome. The Jackets compiled a total record of 40 million (probably more) wins and -2 losses. These unstoppable Jackets conquered division rivals such as El Cerrito and Galactic Evil Pirates regularly.

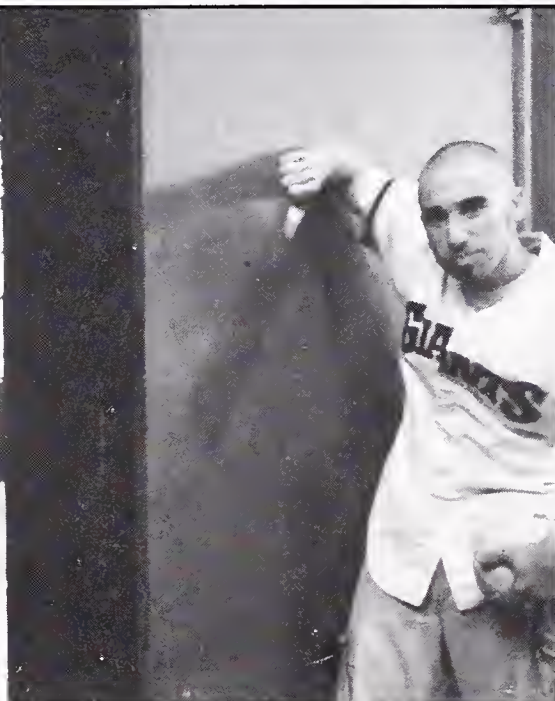

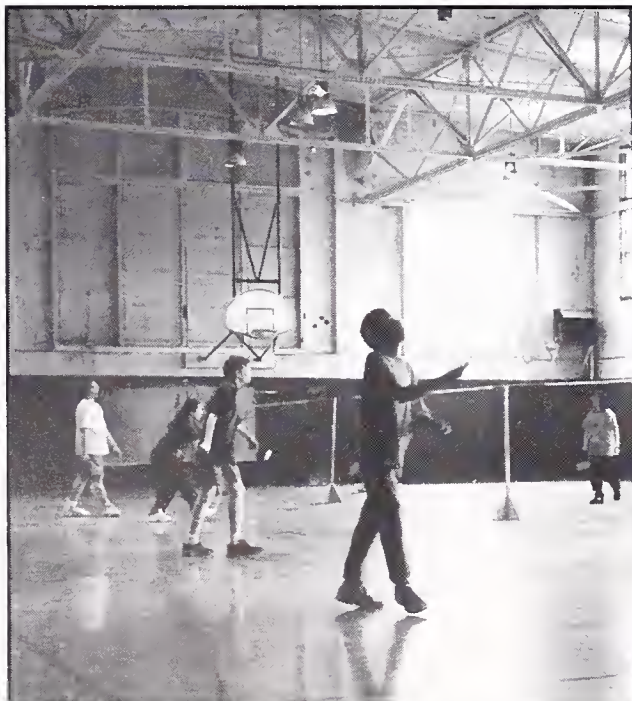

According to starting outside hitter Sam Fuller, the Jackets wouldn't have dominated as much if an army of sweet ninjas wasn't on their side. "Imagine cool, then take cool and make it cooler, then add like a billion cools to that. That's not even a fraction of how cool these ninjas are." Frank, a 6 foot demonic bunny rabbit who assisted in coaching, made a large impact on the teams UAP (Ultra Awesome Powers). When asked if the team was better than all other sports teams at BHS, Tiger replied, "We're better than everyone, ever, at anything."

By day: studious Berkeley High students...

By night: intense warriors ready to dominate!

Jumping, dunking, and flipping are second nature to these volley ballers

Volleyball doesn't like Badminton; niether do ninjas.

Some players have more testosterone than others

That's right, these Jackets didn't mess around, except occasionally in practice when they threw volleyballs with awesome strength at Rachel "Queen of the Harpies" Sweet-smell. "One time," reported starting outside hitter Dan Sanders, "a ball hit her so hard that her face burst into flames. We tried to blow on it but that only made it worse — it was awesome."

Perhaps the most memorable moment of the season was when the starting middle blocker, senior Ethan Ashley, spiked a ball so hard that it made a hole in the ground. A bunch of ninjas came out of the hole and kicked a bunch of asses. The ninjas we're totally awesome; one did a triple 360 kick that knocked this guy's head into like a billion pieces. Then each piece exploded causing an ultra mega awesome boom that instantly killed Rachel Sweet-smell. Then we had a party.

As you can see the Berkeley High Yellow Jackets are not to be trifled with. Ninjas who can whoop you without you even knowing it have their backs. So watch out next year when these Volley Ballers return to take over the universe and give those Galactic Evil Pirates beatings they will never forget.

During practice we enjoy throwing balls at people we don't like!

Despite a relatively young team, Women's Varsity Lacrosse opened up a strong season with a 16-1 victory over San Ramon. Coached by Rebecca "Cool, Confident and Focused" Meyer, they dominated their league. Led by senior captains Joanna "Was That Men's Lacrosse?" Hoch, Lily "But I Take a Shower Every Three Days" Schneider, and Elena "Did You Score Today?" "Umm... Three times..." Krieger, a plethora of talented players made up the team. Goalie Rosie "Fifteen Piercings and Counting" Gibson stopped nearly every ball that came her way. Helping her out on low defense were Laura "I'm the Most Terrifying Defensive Player" Bernhard, Kelly "Let's Hustle Ladies" Havens, Juliette "No! No! No!" Jardim, and Madeline "Mongoose" Kovacs. Stephanie "Burning People is My Hobby" Rodman, Molly "The Ruth Is on Fire" Gaebler, Meg "The World Is My Bathroom" Waltner, Elizabeth "Covert Ballet Dancer" Helliesen, Julia "I'm Gonna Intercept That" Cross and Emily "I Didn't Mean to Hit that Car" Zubrisky covered the midfield on defense, while Sascha "Draws Are My Specialty" Atkins-Loria, Veronica "I'm Violent" Searles, and Lynn "I Never Get Cold" O'Shaughnessy took care of center. Attack midfield consisted of Genna "My Cleats Are Two Sizes Too Small" Collins, Meredith "I Am the Future of Lacrosse" Gaber, Aura "Ouch, My Ankle" Navichoque, and Alex "My Boyfriend Wears Blue Shorts" Pauley. Kate "I've Got Behind" Walstead, Kelly "Hustle?" Friedman, Becca "I'm a Giants Fan" Simon and Kristen "Crease-Master" Etcheverry led the offense on high attack. Junior varsity was composed of a new but talented group of freshmen, sophomores and juniors, coached by Alexis Tjian.

Men's Lacrosse

Berkeley's men's lacrosse team had a very successful season thanks to the leadership of 12 seniors and their deep bench.

Led by our workhorse midfielders, Nick "I ain't Ben" Schooler, Ed "I could go left if I wanted" Hill, Tamir "T-Bone" Elterman, Ben "Faceoff Extrordaniare" Simler, Scott "I bit it" Jackson, Calvin "Hook" Gaskin, Andres "Where the fudge is the canuck" LeFlor, Cameron "Still the Hawk" Sampson, Julian "Sac o' stuff" Kauffman, Daniel "Bloody D" Jarvis, Sam "The other Noah" Gellar, and Kelly "Chior Boy" Moon.

Then there was our devastating defense, who made all of the opposing attack men cry. Guys like Chris "Ballin' Impala" May, Joaquin "huh, huh, uh, huh" Palomino, Owen "Thuglove" Goldstrom, Dee "Cup" Sommers, Chris "Redneck" Kaer, Joe "Joe Issel" Issel, and David "I get no" P.T..

The attackmen ran circles around confused defenses all season. These guys made the goalies sad, including Jesse "uuuhhhh..." Cohen, Eric "That stuff ain't funny no more" Lindemann, Noah "The Lost Child" Flessel, Dan "The Man" Vilar, and Jonah "the turtle V6" Hill.

Finally, our goalies shut down many a offense. Mark "Because I gotta fly" Bloch stole their lunch money while Monty "I wrote the paper, didn't I?!" Carlson took their candy.

We were coached by Jon "Rockin' the yamuka" Rubin and the Brothers Brownlow - Jake "Listen up Playa" and Noah "EMT fo' life".

This season the Men's Tennis team went on a quest for courts. After losing the BHS Tennis courts to parking last year, finding a home court was a struggle. Track & Field

Berkeley high track and field exceeded all expectations, completing the course in record time. They proved their dedication by putting in hard work every day during the spring semester. Led by a strong senior class, the Jackets dominated the league and showed the ACCAL some of the fastest runners around.

Swimming & Diving

The Berkeley High Diving Team was fantastic this year. It had many returning divers such as Ben Giustino, Amelia McGowan, and Serena Lim. Although the team was small, its members showed a lot of talent. The divers worked incredibly hard this year, and each one of them improved tremendously by the time the season came to a close. As a result, the BHS divers had a very successful season. Go Jackets!

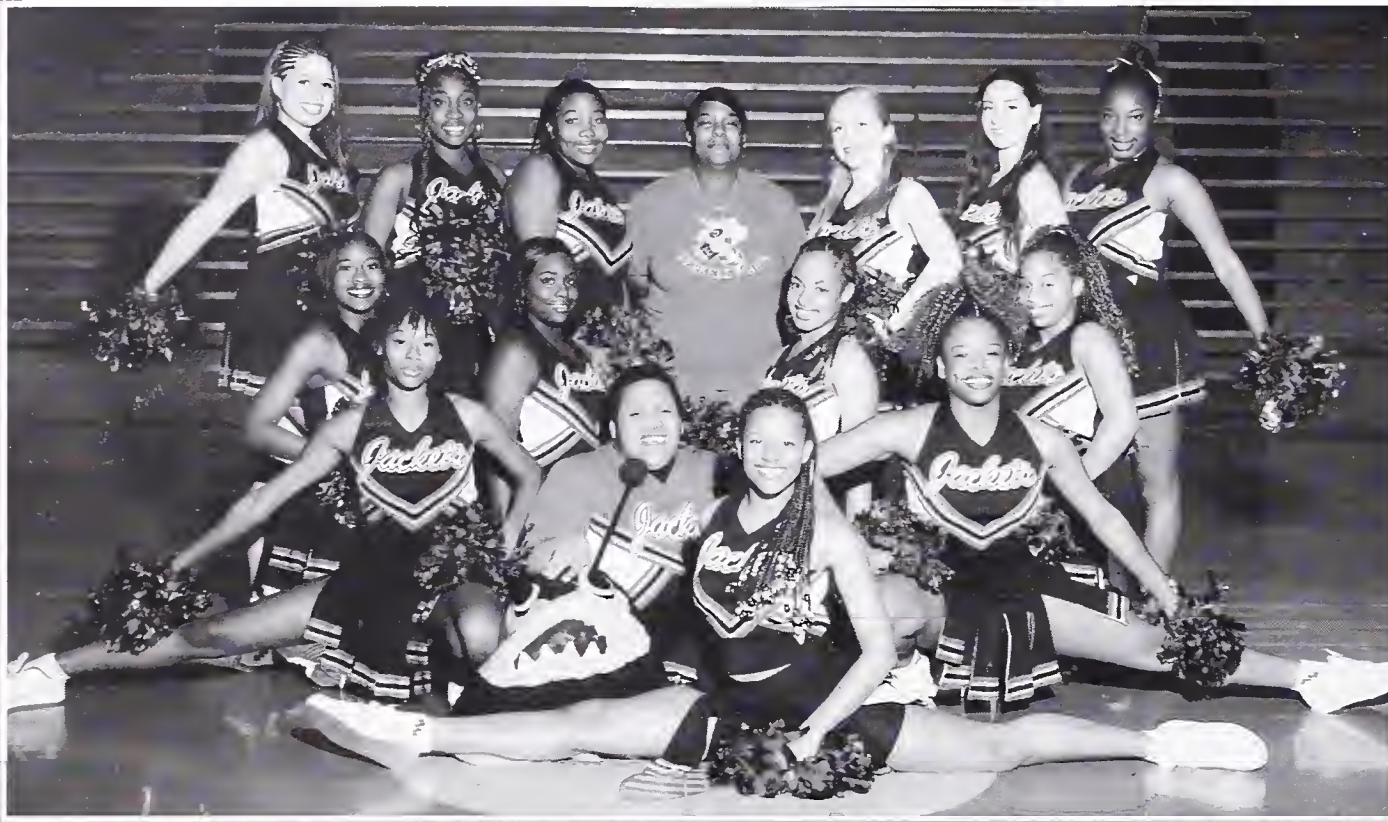

In its new league, the Berkeley High Swim Team has continued to dominate--standing tall over all of the other teams in the ACCAL, under the watchful eye of our coach Keith Brooks. The team consists of many talented swimmers from all four grades, including seniors Andrea Fajans, Ariel Wolter, Emma Bassein, Lindsay Rodgers, Ma'ayan Geller, Marissa Root, Nisha Ajmani, and Sallie Oto. Juniors included Ariel Nikzhad, Elliot Wong, Cody Ramin, Kathryn Rugo, and Virginia Vaughn. The team's sophomores were Amy Jagust, Charlotte Daniels, Dominic Cathey, Katie Bullman, Kate Goodin, and Natasha Holt-Patrick. Last but not least, the freshman included several fast Jackets like Lauren Sonderegger and Cody Karn. Overall the BHS Jackets had an incredibly successful season and look forward to a promising future.

SMALL SCHOOLS

COMMUNICATION ARTS AND SCIENCES

In its fifth year, Communication Arts and Sciences (CAS) continued in its tradition of promoting social justice, media literacy, and community among its students. Once a fledgling educational experiment, CAS has developed into a Berkeley High institution.

Under the leadership of Rick Ayers, Bill Pratt, and a dedicated circle of teachers, CAS made strides this year toward creating an interesting and timely curriculum that builds strong relationships across its diverse group of students. CAS students furthered their studies through community engagements, attending screenings at the Pacific Film Archive and performances at the Berkeley Rep Theater. CAS also strengthened its internal bonds through class retreats and international trips.

Setting its sights on the future, CAS hopes to create a sister school in Cuernavaca, Mexico, and continue to work in the Berkeley community to make a difference.

COMMON GROUND

In its second year, Common Ground has become a major part of Berkeley High. Spearheaded by Dana Richards, CG combines classes in most of the major subjects to make a program that has formed a friendly and family-like community among its 400 students. The most important goal that Common Ground strives for is that when students leave the program, all will be ecologically literate citizens in the global community.

COMPUTER ACADEMY

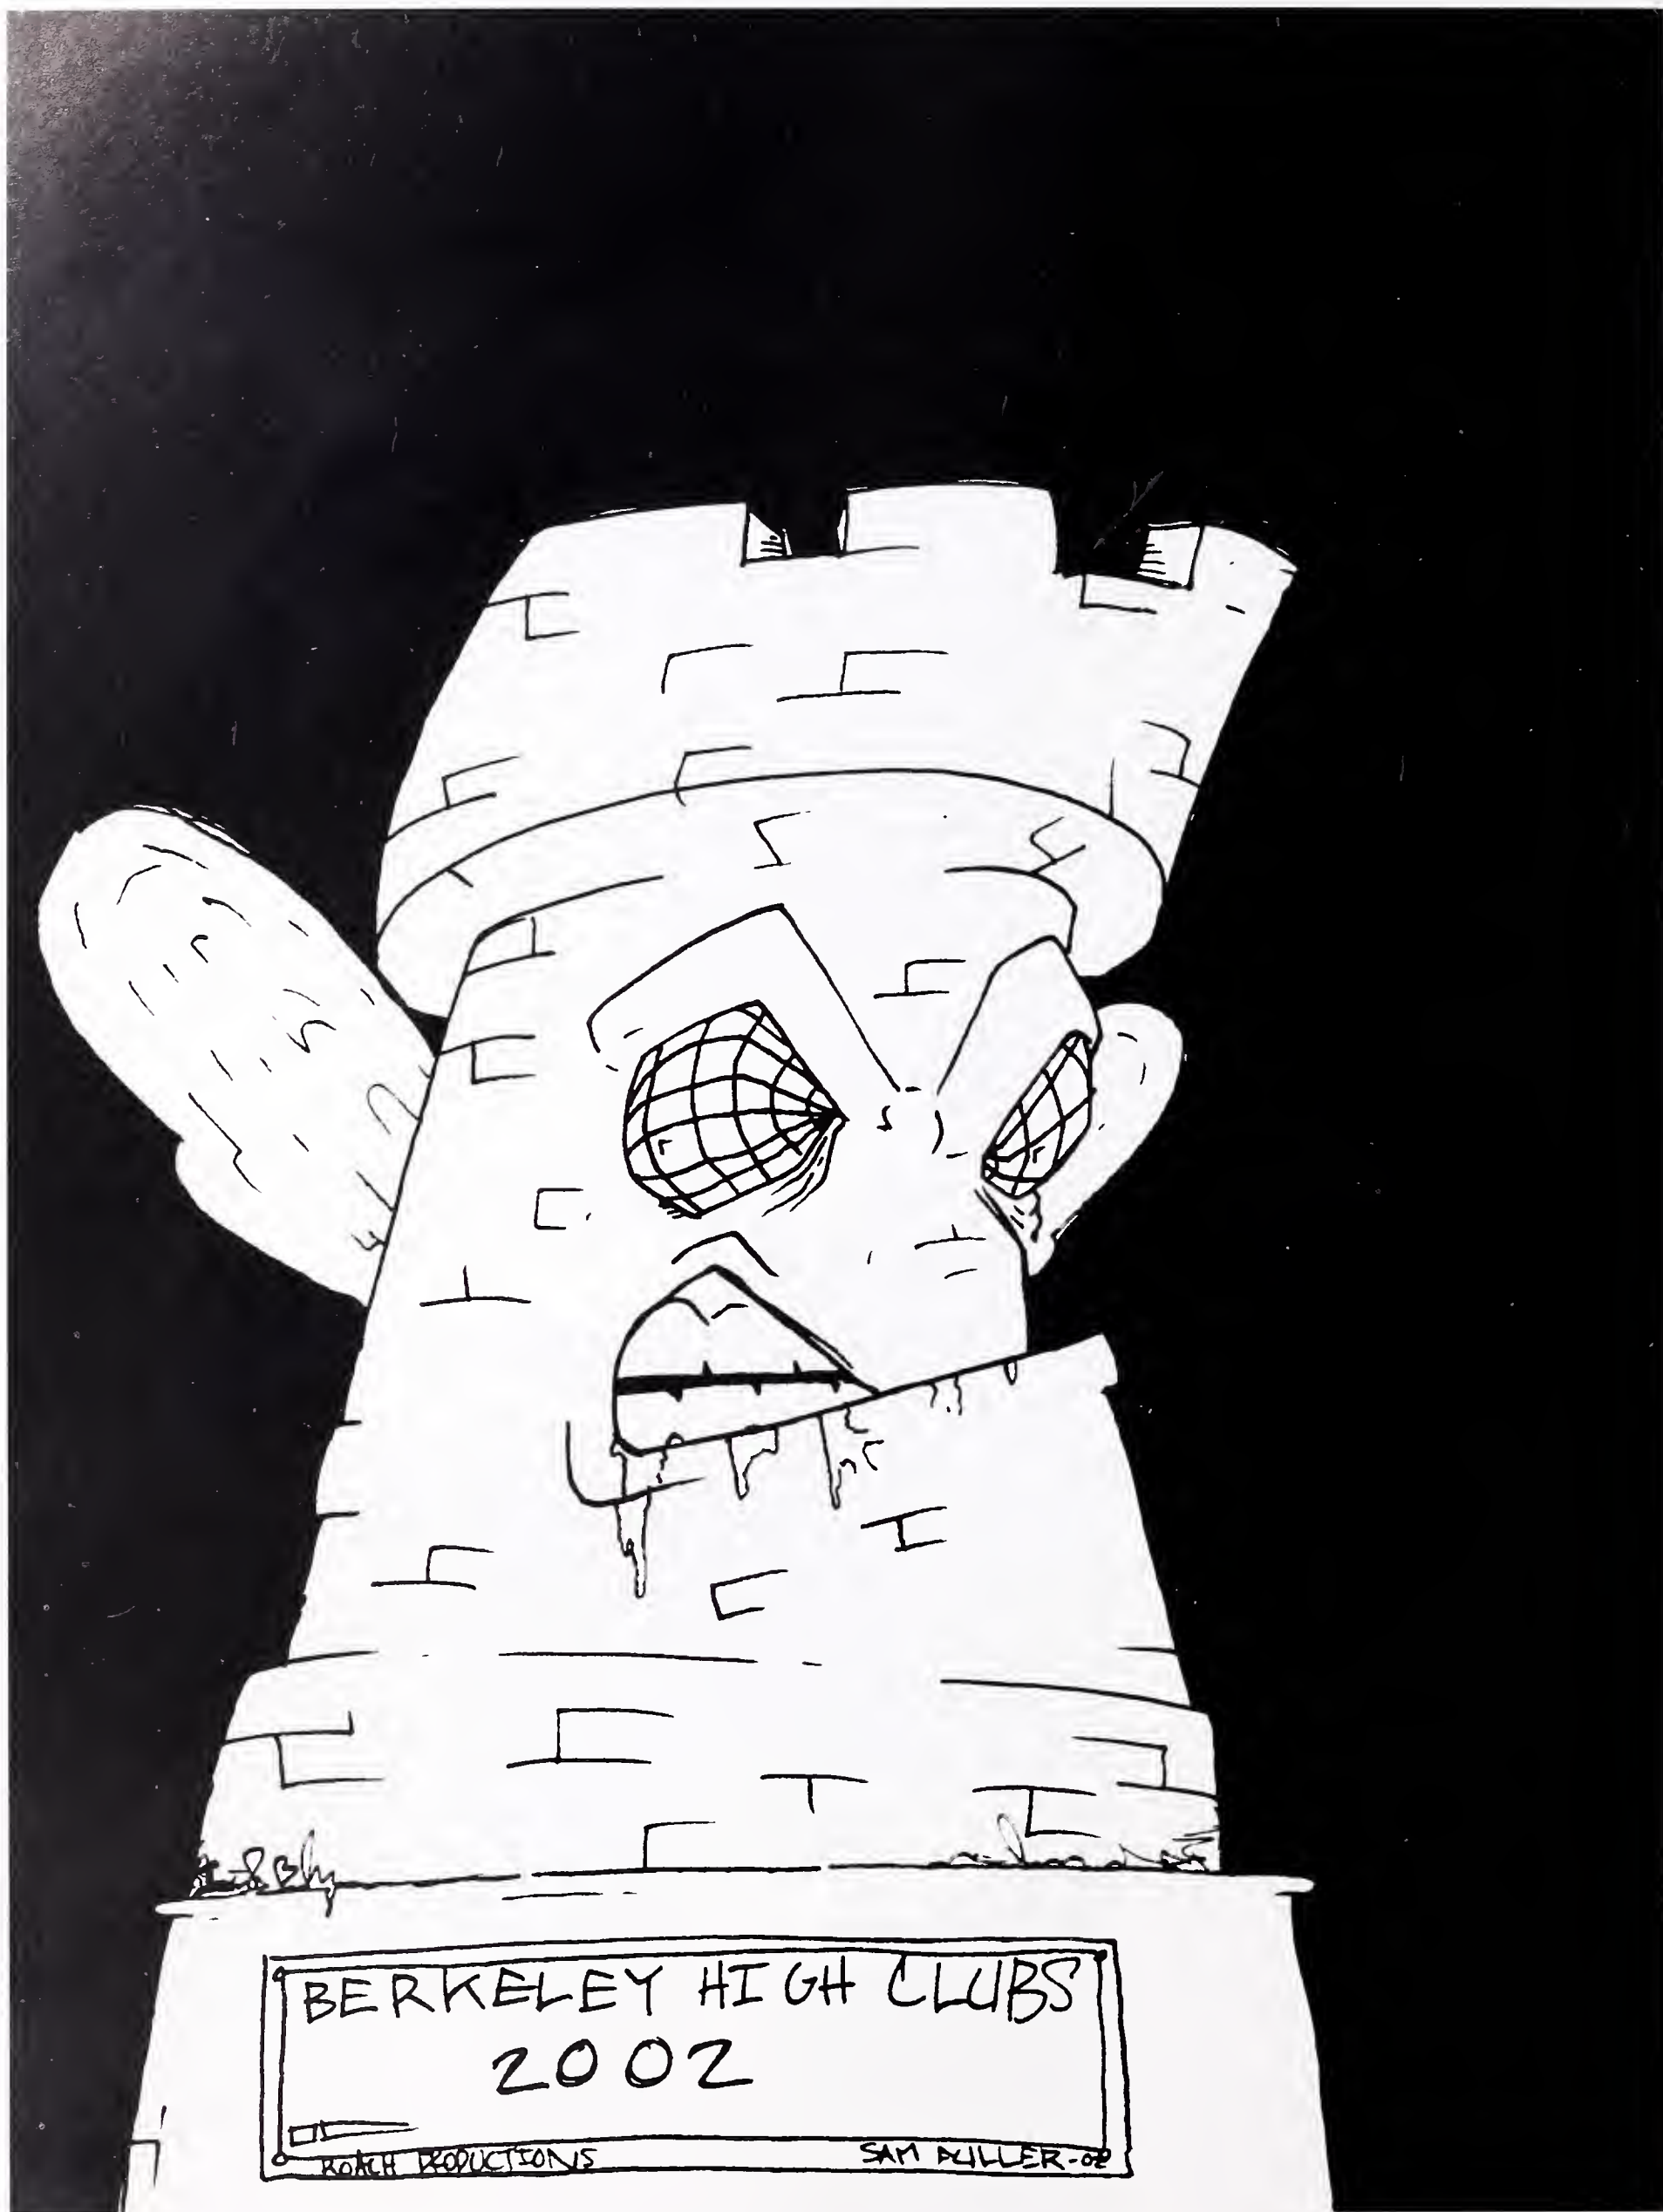

Computer Academy is a small school program within Berkeley High. Nearly 200 students, grades 10-12, comprise the program, founded in 1990. The Computer Academy focuses on community involvement in education, government, business and the environment, encouraging a sense of future vision by learning to overcome barriers and become agents of change. The Computer Academy's commitment to individual students helps each participant achieve his or her potential in order to be prepared for college and to learn computer skills needed in college and the working world. Students in the Computer Academy often remark that they experience a sense of community through their involvement in the program.

BIOTECH ACADEMY

Biotech Academy (BA) is a two-year school-to-work program designed to help non-college-bound students obtain the skills needed to get a job at a biotechnology company. The program emphasizes lab work and hands-on activities. Included in the program are two paid summertime work experiences, during which students perfect and expand on the skills taught in class. The program recruits and selects students in the spring of their sophomore year. This program represents a coalition of Berkeley High, the City of Berkeley, and the Bayer Corporation.

This years Yearbook staff was full of funny, skilled, innovative and very opinionated people. The start was rocky, but eventually we cranked out pages faster than you can say, "Jacket Sucks!"

The first decision that really got the ball rolling was to completely eliminate pictures of freshmen in the yearbook. "Nobody really wants to see them," said sophomore Sam Fuller after conducting many sophisticated polls. It was this kind of innovative and creative thinking that spawned this yearbook to be the best one Berkeley High School has ever seen.

After the biggest controversey in yearbook history, the rigging of the Current Events Polls (to most, the very soul of the Yearbook itself), picking up the pieces of the shattered Yearbook mirror was a difficult but necessary task.

After many months of endless toil, the smell of hard work was in the air and the Yearbook began to take shape. Like a fine wine, the Yearbook improved as the days went on. By the end, it was decided by one and all throughout the land, to be the best yearbook in history.

We truly hope that you enjoy the memories that we have preserved for eternity (or until you lose this book), but if you don't, you are destined for a life of dissapointment because this is the best yearbook you'll ever see!

INTREPID JACKETEERS BRAVE DEATH, ADMIN PORTABLE

by Rahiem Oman

It was a dark and stormy night, a dark and stormy Thursday night. The smart BHS students had gone home hours ago; the really smart ones were already in bed. But a few students, oh yes, a few foolhardy students lingered on campus at all sorts of ungodly hours of the night, slaving away over a paper whose name they could barely remember in their fatigue. They laughed, they cried, they hallucinated from sleep deprivation. And they said, Let there be Jacket: and there was Jacket.

The clock read 2:15 AM when the printer died. It squealed in electronic anguish, incoherent babble flashing across its incandescent readout. "Dave," it cried silently to David "Just Paste It" Chernicoff, "my mind is going, Dave."

This sentiment ran strong among the denizens of Portable Six; things were going more or less according to schedule. Well into the wee hours of Friday morning, the paper was about half-finished, and the third excuse call to the surly employees at Fricke-Parks Press had already gone out. Under the watchful gaze of Chernicoff and the gazeful watch of Georgia "Do You Guys Want Dinner Yet?" Kellogg, the page editors were slaving away at their pages. Elena "110%" Krieger and Jane "Alliteration's My Middle Moniker" Rochmes were waiting on thirteen last minute stories; Vanessa "Where's My Pookie?" Stumpf was wondering where she could obtain her Pookie; Zack "Pocket Protection Is No Joke!" Sultan was vandalizing organic, recycled Common Ground wall hangings while laughing feverishly to himself; Zahra "The Amazon" Stavis had holed herself up in P5 with the naive conviction that she would finish before midnight; Adam "Where the @#$% is Ben?!" Alcabes and Ben "Where the @#$% is Adam?!" Simrin were gone for the night, having given their section a record-breaking twelve inches of copy (Go Jackets!); and Katie "How Dare You Disturb My Slumber?!" Wiggins and Tessa "Adam F. Buck Cooked My Puppy" Strauss were Photoshopping inside jokes into pictures of graffiti.

Advisers Rick "Can I Get a What-What?" Ayers and Avram "Miso 'Friendly'" Wild weren't "in the house" but, uhhhh . . . they'd be back in, like, an hour.

In the back, away from the madness of PageMaker and the rapidly expiring printer, the other editors sat. Geniotic Copy Editor Megan "Look at Me! I'm a Big Smarty Pants!" Greenwell screeched hypersonically about the creative new uses of commonplace words (the book resounds a boom unheard by none?); Alana "I Miss Varun" Smith-Heimer stood by on standby, ready for anything; Gabe "It Was Working When I Left" Hurley-Ramstad fixed computer glitches with only his stony gaze; Andrea "Bling Bling" Braasch raked in mad skrilleyo.

Approximately five minutes later, the printer, known not only for its strength but also for its heart, passed away. A hush fell amidst the rainforestlike heat of the room, in which the reptilian Greenwell kept the thermostat at a comfortable 152 degrees. In the silence, a tropical bird nesting in the Photo drawer cawed mournfully while a light drizzle nourished the flowering plant life that pushed up between the sparkling clean linoleum tiles.

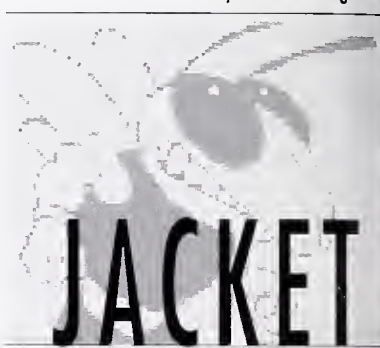

Hurley-Ramstad knelt at the printer's side, moistening its fevered brow with drinking fountain water. He glared at it, threatened it, reasoned with it, good cop/bad copped it, unplugged it, reinstalled it, hit it twice, helped Alana lead a seance for it, and divorced it citing irreconcilable differences—to no avail. Despite the woebegone Web Guy's valiant efforts, the pallid printer surrendered to the sweet embrace of death.

Dressed in skin-tight black jumpsuits, sporting networked Palm Pilots (IIIc's in fact—color!), the dauntless Jacket Ed Board quickly blanketed the campus, spreading their surveillance network from the portables on Channing to the park bench on Allston and from the construction hole on Milvia to that creepy "Try Us Bail Bonds" place on MLK. When everyone was in position, point man Chernicoff was lowered (passive...) into the ceiling of the Admin portable. Shrewdly dodging the light under Co-Principal Leventer's door, Chernicoff affixed the only working printer in the school to a harness fashioned crudely out of ethernet cables and a few of Ms. Feces' [sic] chairs. The late night (or early morning, as the case was) was saved!

Just a few short hours later, they put the paper, and themselves, to bed, knowing that this edition would make a better doorstep for third-floor C Building classrooms than any edition ever had before.

Women's Rugby Club

The Women's Rugby team's dynasty came into full force this season. With an unstoppable mix of seasoned veterans and motivated new players, the team battled big, huge Sacramento man-girls with ferocity. Led by Senior C0-Captains Joanna "Erin is my buddy/ Gimp #1" Hoch, Erin "My dad's taking us to Denny's/ Gimp #2" and Sophia "Who needs a shirt!" Chytry, the team's rugby-virgins learned quickly that alternating head-bustin' with sin-binin' is the best way to go. The full back line of Essence "Please don't make me play fullback" Harden, Regina "Darn Gina!" Alexander, Brittiany "Stiffarm" Bryant, Gabby "It's that time" Miller and Aura "Angry" Navichoque plus little Ramona "Dick and Jane" Gonzalez proved that you don't have to be big to kill. The team's legacy will live on through all the new players who learned the fine art of smashology from our dedicated coaches, Lindsay and Nathan. (Sophia rolled in poo)

The Opera Club

This year, Berkeley High saw the emergence of a new organization: The Opera Club. Now many people think of Opera as the domain of snobs, the effete, the elitists. Nothing could be further from the truth. Opera, in Italy, is a passion of working class people. Opera is a kind of soap opera with popular music. It is beautiful, it is a performance art.

A group of us have decided to attend whenever we can raise the money. With support from the San Francisco Opera, we have been able to get seats in nearly the front row for very reasonable prices.

We see incredible stage performances, complete with poetry, costumes, stage sets, and fantastic music. This year, we attended Verdi's Rigoletto, Puccini's Tosca, and Bizet's Carmen. Who knows, opera may supplant hip hop as the next big thing!

FAM

FALL PLAY : A Midsummer Night's Dream

A Midsummer Night's Dream was a wild ride. Set in the 1980's, and filled with drama and live music, it was true to Shakes-peare and fun for all. Jordan Winer directed the production and found ways to take Shakespeare's four hundred year-old script and liven it up for the 2001 audience. In addition to the 80's get-ups, which included pastel leggings and mascara for all, Winer procured a live band to add 80's tunes to the show.

Smoke and Mirrors, portraying "Big Science," provided the soundtrack for yet another Berkeley High PAD classic.

Jazz Band

Under Charles Hamilton, who took over leadership of the Jazz Ensemble in 1981, the band has continued to thrive, producing some of the best musicians in the jazz world, including Peter Apfelbaum, Ben Ball, Will Bernard, Dave Ellis, Rodney Franklin, Kito Gamble, Benny Green, Graig Handy, Josh Jones, David Murray, Miles Perkins, Lenny Pickett, and Josh Redman.

The Ensemble has performed in venues large and small. In 1997, they performed in Europe by invitation at the Montreux and North Sea Jazz Festivals. In the summer of 1999, the Ensemble toured Japan, and began the 1999-2000 school year with an appearance at the Monterey Jazz Festival. Last Summer ('01 the band again played at the Montreux and Umbria Jazz Festivals in Europe. They just released their second CD.

Lab Band

Afro-Haitian Dance

The Afro-Haitian dance courses offer a unique cultural dance experience. Taught by Naomi Washington, students learn songs, drumming, and dance techniques from West Africa. In addition, students learn the significance and purpose of dances for harvests, celebrations, and rites of passage. Afro-Haitian Dance is offered in the fall and spring with evening performances at the end of each semester.

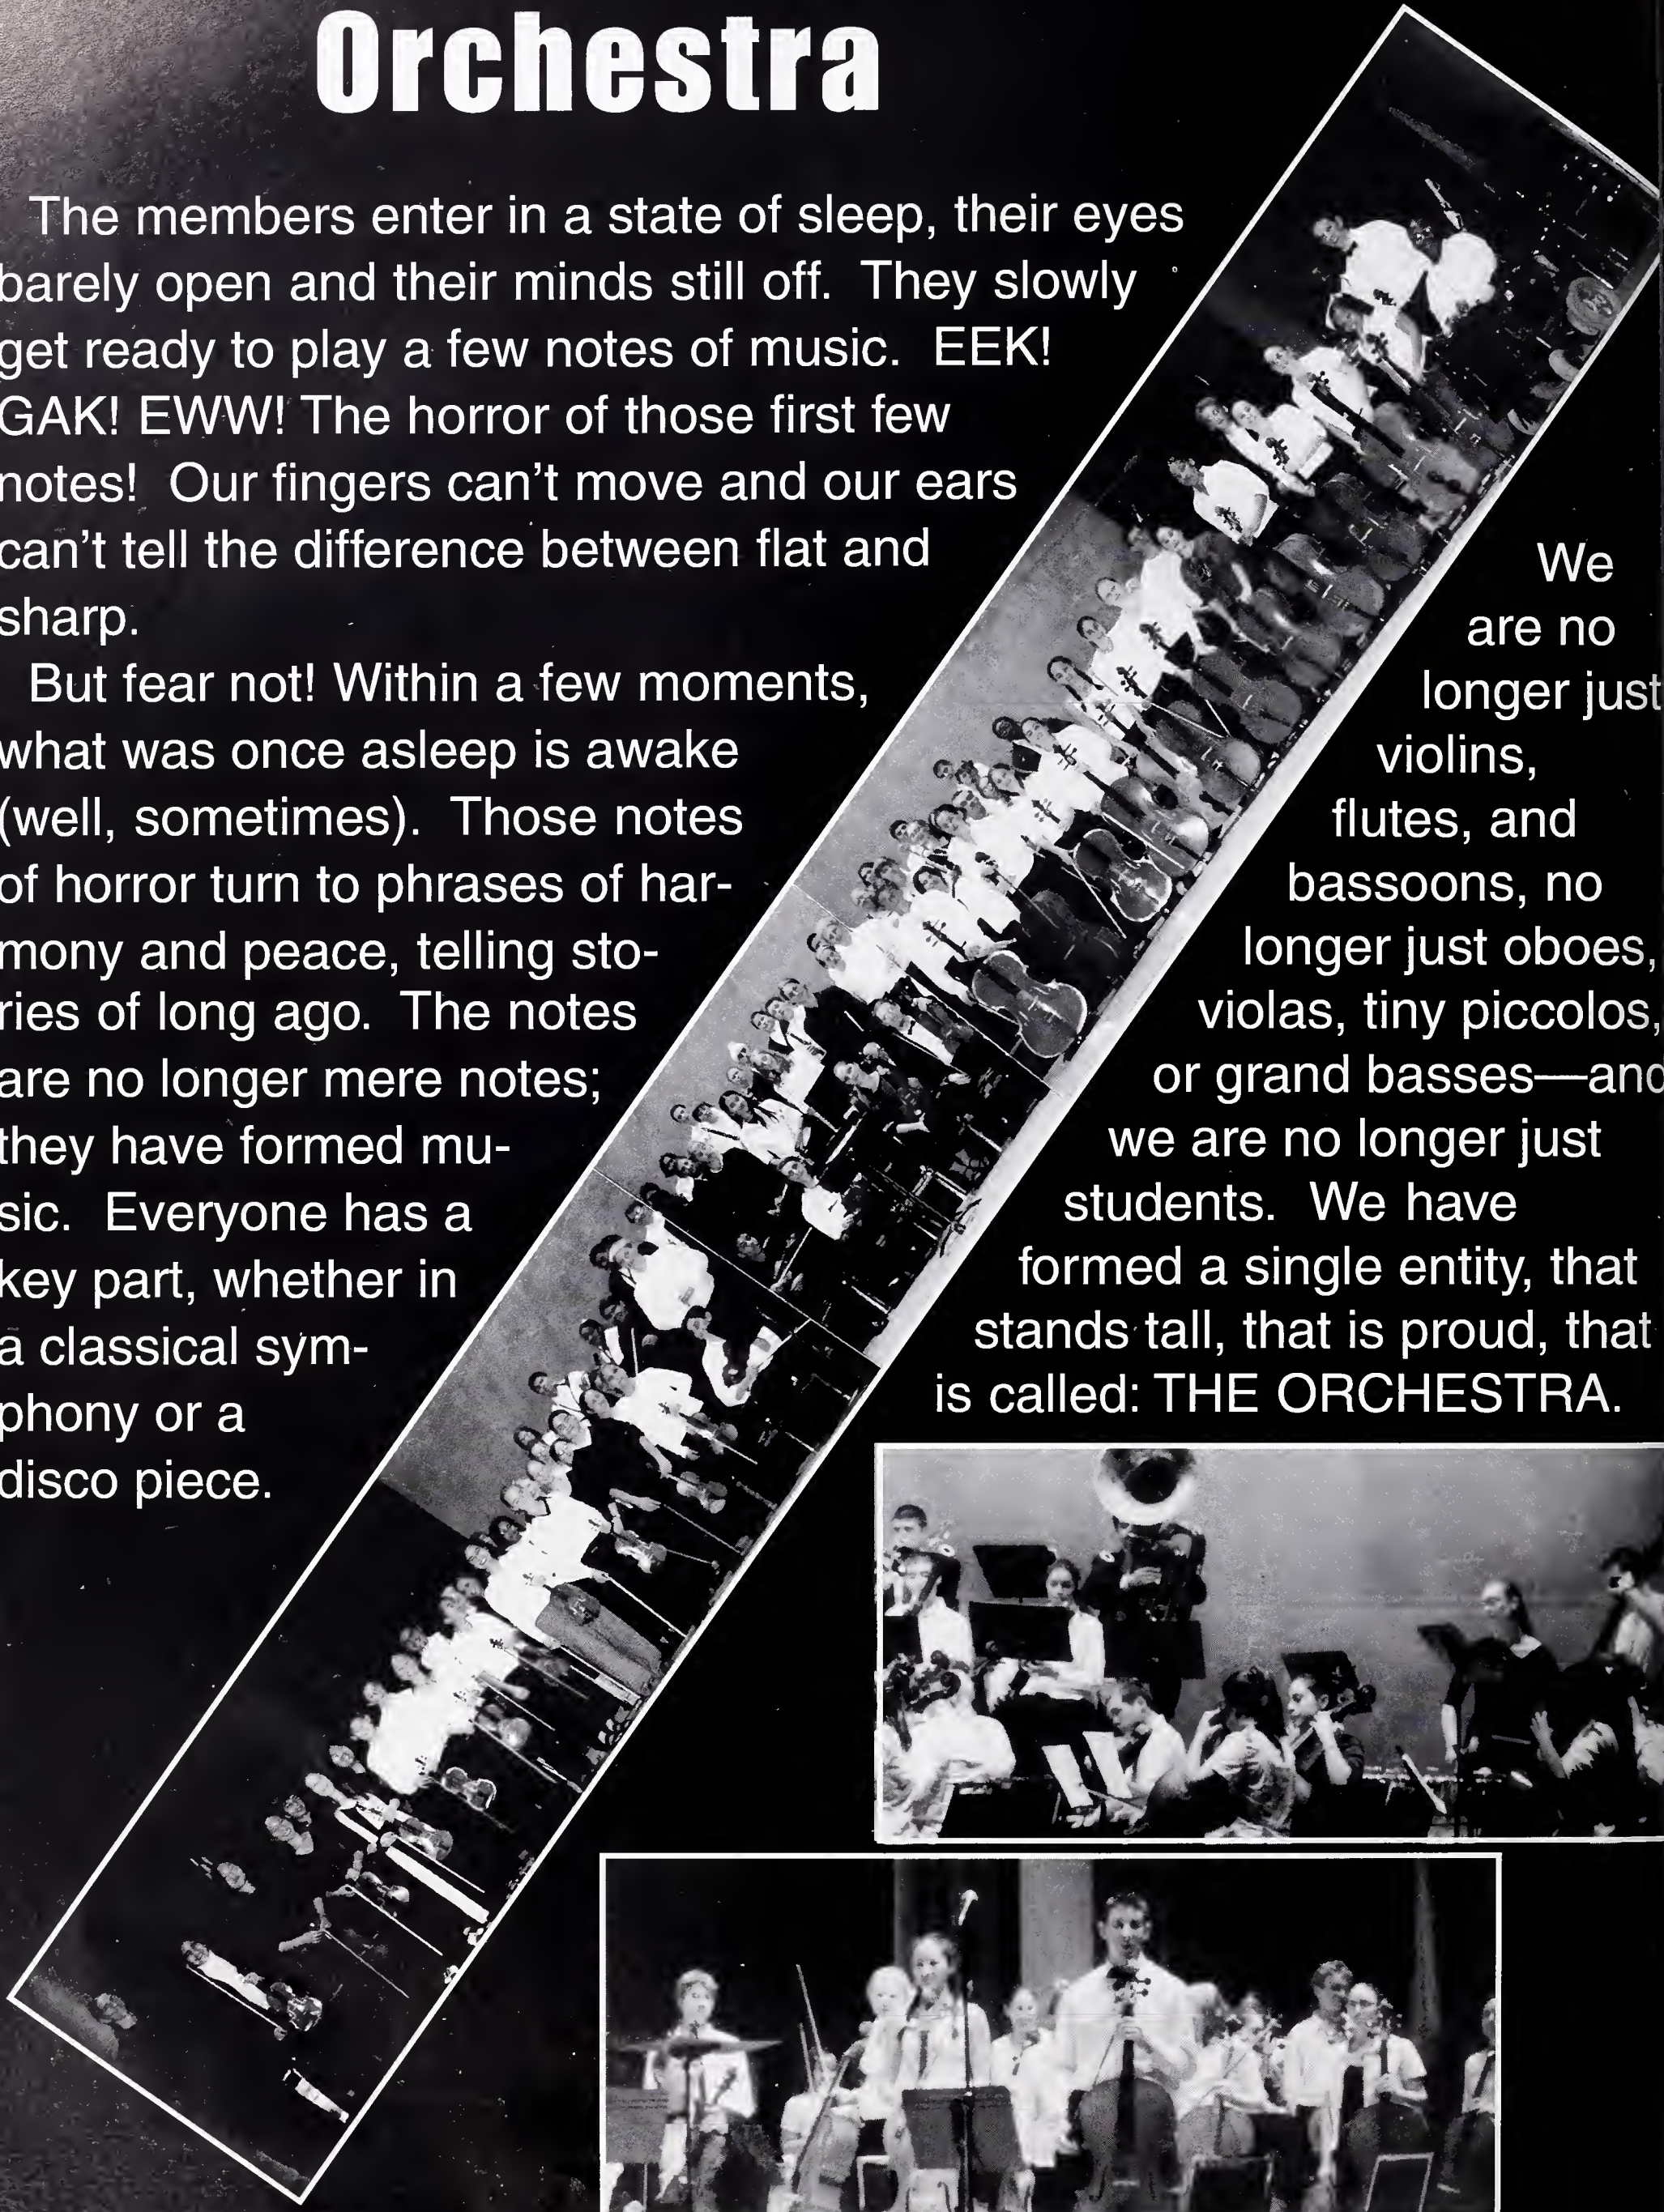

Orchestra

The members enter in a state of sleep, their eyes barely open and their minds still off. They slowly get ready to play a few notes of music. EEK! GAK! EWW! The horror of those first few notes! Our fingers can't move and our ears can't tell the difference between flat and sharp.

But fear not! Within a few moments, what was once asleep is awake (well, sometimes). Those notes of horror turn to phrases of harmony and peace, telling stories of long ago. The notes are no longer mere notes; they have formed music. Everyone has a key part, whether in a classical symphony or a disco piece.

We are no longer just violins, flutes, and bassoons, no longer just oboes, violas, tiny piccolos, or grand basses—and we are no longer just students. We have formed a single entity, that stands tall, that is proud, that is called: THE ORCHESTRA.

Dance Productions

Dance Productions is an audition-required class comprised of different types of dancers from around BHS. The show is completely student-choreographed. Dance styles range from hip-hop to ballet to modern.

Our performances at the end of the first semester are always among the most popular BHS shows!

Concert Chorale

Down, down, deep down in the A building you can hear Berkeley High's Concert Chorale. This group has been compared to the Vienna Boys Choir and other great singers across the world. The group maintains this level of greatness even though they must practice in the dark recesses of the A building. In addition to singing, they also get to enjoy the humorous and philosophical monologues of the group's leader, Mr. Brooks, a man who has single-handedly held Concert Chorale together. They practiced their hearts (and lungs) out to prepare for their traditional winter concert. If you spot a group of singing teenagers roaming the hallways of this school, it's a good bet that you are witnessing the fabulous Concert Chorale.

Baile Folklórico

Baile Folklórico is a class offered both for PE and Performing Arts credit. In this class we learn traditional dances from Mexico. The class is open to all students, male and female. We have always had a diverse class of all ethnicities, and we have a lot of fun.

The Baile Folklórico class goes to nearby schools and dances in assemblies and shows. This year we performed at Ashkenaz in Berkeley, the Afro-Haitian show, and in December we put on our very own production, "Nuestras Raices."

The show was a success! Thanks to all of the students, parents, and teachers who have supported us.

The show is over and the curtain has closed. Jaime and Jesse agree that despite the administration's best efforts to make the show devoid of fun at all costs, it was an overwhelming success. Jaime and Jesse reminisce about all of the friends that they have made during this chapter of their lives.

They count their blessings - the knowledge they've accumulated, their accomplishments, and the hardships they've overcome - and they realize how they will never forget the time they spent at BHS, because the fond memories are now just that. The bittersweet feeling of graduation begins to set in as the Class of 2002 walks the stage into the future.

One last look...

As Advisor to the 2002 yearbook I would like to thank a number of people in the Berkeley High Community for their support and contributions to our publication. First of all, the Yearbook staff would like to thank all the people who buy Berkeley High School yearbooks. Your purchases are the reason this publication continues to thrive even through the financial woes of the previous years. We strive to produce a beautiful book at a reasonable cost.

I would like to congratulate the yearbook students and thank the many teachers and school staff members who have made time to assist yearbook students with our projects. The Berkeley High Administration team including our supervisor, Larry Lee, also deserves our thanks for putting up with the Senior Spellout and other yearbook sponsored nuttiness that makes life interesting. I would like to thank the members of the Visual Arts Department - Miriam Stahl, Lucinda Daly, Eric Norberg and Sally Wolfer - who make extra allowances for me to work on the yearbook as well as lending an empathetic ear. I would also like to thank Allison Johnson our English Department Head, and Lee Amoslee along with the other members of the tech support team for doing all they could for us.

The Jacket crew deserves a special thank you to it's Editors David Chernicoff, Zack Sultan, and Elena Krieger for helping with so many things - even working with us in the late night hours of deadline times. Given the challenges of sharing space and computers the Jacket and Yearbook crews managed to deal with their differences using humor and empathy instead of fists. Many photographs and information bits used in this book were derived from Jacket sources.

My Editors deserve acknowledgment also. Our fall semester Co-Editor, Irene Hernandez-Sanchez, managed the bulk of our fall Yearbook sales and in her quiet way, was a support to fledgling staff members. During the spring semester Editor-In-Chief, Katy "Deadline Queen" Fong, got us in high gear, even with many difficult circumstances, and managed to get the book done on time - Watch out Erin Brokovitch!

Thanks again to all the community members who support us, including the family members of yearbook staff who had to deal with the many hours outside of school time that a production like this takes. I would especially like to thank my husband, Michael, and our two children, Nathan and Brendan, for their continued understanding of my work and special interests. Thank you, CommUnity (as poet, Planet delivery man, and dear friend Bill Trampleasure writes it), for all your love and support.

In 1999, David Chernicoff sponsored legislation to put crack into the hands of disadvantaged children, and to replace Wyoming with the worlds largest indoor mall.

Zack Sultan is good. Not bad. He likes education and democracy and stuff.

Vote for Zack Sultan. Not that other guy from before.

Dear everyone,

-Yearbook

Patrice

Throughout these four years many chapters in life have ended and new ones begun. Life passes in chapter-episodes. This is how one matures or grows. Life is an endless learning process, every experience will change you in some way. No matter what one goes through it is important to remember that through love and faith in God all can be accomplished. Friends may come and go but there is one who sticks closer than a brother or sis [Proverbs 18:24] (thanx Patrice). Too many people forget to cherish those special ones in their lives (family), this is sad, for one day they will awake to realize that they always took for granted what they now miss. So everyday tell someone you love them and mean it! Life passes by very quickly -one must learn not only how to live life but also how to exist and share that existence with someone.

REMEMBER WHEN...

Ode to '98

here's to the class of '98
 we both want to say that we think you're just great the year started with many hopes and wishes tentative smiles and assignments ambitious oh, the books we have read full of smilies and metaphors spoke of Juan, Rachel, Jonathan, Sacajawea and more on to Lyddie, Lena, Jethro, and Lenny stories filled with conflicts and decisions a plenty in history we learned native tribes once abounded that is of course 'til our country was founded land was settled, and wars were fought our knowledge quadrupled and so did our thoughts in to the mix came computers and art book reports, essays, projects were only the start friends could be found in 202 and 203 eating, laughing, and feeling free on a regular basis we helped each other through the paces with patience and smiles on our beautiful bright faces we'll always remember this year that was with affection, fondness, and a great deal of love our pride in your growth was good to note and we know that you're ready and won't miss the boat so look out high schools, for we're sending our best the class that keeps ticking and won't take a rest high fives, bubbles, stickers, hugs and hellos we know that you'll be welcome wherever you goes so class of '98 we really do hate to say farewell to a group so great we'll look forward with pleasure to that day we'll all treasure when we come see our crew
 as the class of '02

We have been friends since the eighth grade, helping one another and sticking together through the good and bad times. We bought this page hoping that everytime we look back we will remember the fun we had together no matter how far apart our paths may lay. And wishing this little speech will encourage us to reunite each other if we ever lose contact. We end this journey and begin a new one, saying good luck to one another:
